“ We lived next door to Bob and his first wife, Kathy, when we were all first married in the 70's. Bob was always a character and always playing a prank on someone. One of the other neighbors had his car stolen one night and woke several of us up the next morning banging on Bob's door because he just KNEW Bob had somehow moved his vehicle and hidden it from him. Bob was not guilty of that one, it really was stolen, but we all laughed because he just immediately thought Bob had played another prank. Bob was always fun to be around, he would always have you smiling. My prayers for the whole family....I am so very sorry for your loss.

“ Yes dad and thank you, Me and his family took care of all that. I chose to relinquish rights for his son to be in charge of the funeral and my heart is heavy for his family right now and for our son Bailey. I know it will be a beautiful service, full of people who loved Bob and full of his friends. I pray for comfort for his family and for all three of his sons. May God be with all of us during these trying times, I am not one to question God's will, but this is ALL hard just the same. But God is Love and will get everyone through this ♡

“ Robbie and Allen I am so sorry about your father. I will always remember you boys coming to stay with us all the time! Bob loved y'all with an unconditional heart! You both were and always have been his pride and joy! I will be praying for you and love you both dearly! Cling to all the wonderful memories of the love he had for you... I will miss his sweet spirit! Danell Ray "Sam"

“ All the people who loved him was not there. I am his cousin and he was my favorite. It hurts my heart that I was not there but I can say this and put my life on it. Bob was one of the most caring and honorable person you would ever meet and would never disrespect anyone unless they deserved it. He loved his sons very much and Allen and Robbie y'all were his world and he loved his grandkids. I can't say why things happen but I can say God knows all about it. My heart is broken and there is so much I want to say but not the time and place. All I know for sure is I love my cousin and I know he loves me. He cared so much about his friends and wanted to help us all if he could. He was never one to put himself first. God has blessed us for just being a part of his life. I love you guys and your family and maybe one day we can hook up because like everyone else, family and friends got wonderful story to tell. Have a blessed day and know there are many people praying for y'all and love y'all

“ To Bob's Family~We are so sorry for your loss. Bob was so kind to my Momma, Katie Blankenship. With us living away, I knew Momma had someone she could call if she needed help with anything. Bob always kept her yard mowed and scrubs & flowers taken care of. Momma spoke so highly of Bob and always had something to tell us about his family and his grandchildren when we came home to visit her. Sending our sincere sympathy to you all~John & Linda Woolbright

“ Bob Brown was one of a kind. He and I got along from the first day we met. He welcomed me into his family and always made me laugh. He had the best stories! One thing I know for certain is how much he loved his boys. He bragged on them every chance he got. He loved his grandchildren and was so proud of them. He had a big smile but an even bigger heart. Thank you, Bob, for always being so kind. You will be missed by so many. I'm praying for his friends and family and hope that they can cherish the memories they have to make the next few months a little easier.

“ Bob was a truly nice and generous person. He always looked for the good in everyone. He truly loved his family and was so very proud of all of them, Bob seemed to always put others first and never wanted to bother others with his problems. Bob Brown you just do not know how much people loved you for your kindness and your ability to make others laugh. You were a truly sweet and nice guy. We are all so very thankful for the happy memories you left us with.

“ Bob used to come in the Wellness Center when I worked there. That is where I first got to know him. He was his own person, which I could totally respect. He always, always had a smile on his face and put a smile on mine. He was a sweet sweet soul. I am so sorry for his family.....I know he loved them and know they will miss his free spirited self. I pray for peace and great memories to help get them all through this.

“ Bob used to bring his grandsons to Sunflower on Saturdays for a plate lunch. They would dine in at the tables. I used to tell the boys that if they ate their food, I would give them a prize. It was never much, a ring or a cookie maybe. Bob and I would always have a nice visit. Those little boys were his heart. You could tell how much he loved them. He missed one Saturday and took them to Ryan's instead. He told me later they threw a fit because they wanted to go see the lady with the ponytail at Sunflower. He laughed because the little prize I gave them meant more to them than the dessert bar at a larger place. He didn't miss many more Saturdays after that. We reminisced about growing up in small town Pheba. When times were simpler and everyone knew everyone else. He loved those boys so much. I pray that they hold on to their memories of him and know that they were loved dearly by their pawpaw. Prayers for this family.

“ Bob was one of a kind. He could make you smile when you wanted to cry. You always knew where you stood with Bob and to me, that is the ultimate compliment. He never tried or pretended to be anything other than who he was. I will miss you and your wit, your kindness and your smile. See you again one day.
