“ Alexis was a very bright and fun loving young lady. She touched the lives of all she came in contact with. I will truly miss her and I know that many of her fellow classmates/teammates will miss her even more. All we have left are pictures & fond memories, which we will cherish forever. Our prayers go out to the Swindle/Fields families during these times. May God give you solace and peace to know that her soul is resting in a better place. Fly high, sweet Alexis.

“ So saddened by this. I taught Alexis in the second grade. She was one of those children that you automatically loved. She had a great personality. Alexis will be missed by many. May God be with her family during this time and give them strength to go on without her.
