“ Mrs. Alice was a special person. I was always so close to her sister Nell, but was always around Alice too at different times. I got to know her very well over the years and got to enjoy watching her dance with her special friend. She loved life and loved adventure. I ate dinner with her in November and as always she shared her perspective on things and I always enjoyed hearing her stories. I begged her to let me buy her lunch, but she would not have it. We so enjoyed each other that day, but she was always a delight for sure. I am so glad I took a longer lunch that day without a care on what time it was. Mrs. Alice, I know you are dancing in the streets of gold sweet lady.

“ My husband, JC Walker, met Miss. Alice about 2 years ago when she asked him to help with her yard. He told me you have to meet someone and began to tell me about the amazing Miss. Alice. When I met her I instantly loved her. I loved her honesty and compassion. She lived an amazing life. I loved hearing her stories. Her love of clocks!
Miss. Alice would dote on JC. Making sure he had water when he was helping her in her yard and making sure he had something to eat.
She was stern but a sweet soul.
She enriched our lives.

“ Aunt Alice was an amazing lady. I call her Aunt because I spent a lot of time at the Huffman's with her nieces so she became my aunt Alice also. Years later when I got married we would go up to the VFW to dance. Aunt Alice was an amazing dancer and would always come get my husband to twirl around the floor. We ran into her about 6 months ago and got to hug and visit with her awhile. She will be missed so much. My thoughts and prayers are with her family!

“ Mrs Alice was always cordial, kind and a very sharp dresser. She was very supportive of Veterans auxiliary and veterans homes support. She visited the local Cathy's Restaurant and was a great patron. Rest in peace Mrs Alice Coburn.

“ Alice and I have lived side by side as neighbors for many many years. We became really close when my husband left and her husband Jim passed away. We cleaned our yards together. We would burn our many tree limbs together, and we would sit for hours under the trees or in the chairs under my carport gossiping about anything and everything. We cared alot about each other and I'm going to miss her dearly. I thank God for the many happy times we shared. I wish I could be there but had some medical limitations of my own that have prevented me from returning home just yet. Going home will not be the same without her there beside me. I hope her brothers know how much she loved and talked about them and how proud of them she was. I am very grateful that she was my friend . You will all be in my prayers. Rest in peace my sweet friend Love, Yvonne Byrd
