“ She was a good neighbor, she and my Mother in law were close, Nannie Gray Fulgham lived across the road and when she was so very ill she and Doug checked on her every day. When Doug found each other she came full circle again, if a function came along they enjoyed going to church, gospel singing, go out to eat, they both had a sweet spirit together.

“ Almarita had such a sweet spirit about her. She and I had been friends since we were in school. She was the kindest, sweetest lady I had ever known. I will always hold dear our friendship. She was so soft spoken and kind. She will be missed by everyone who knew her. My thoughts and prayers are with her family.

“ Mrs. Almarita was a precious woman; so soft spoken, and always smiling. She had a heart of gold and her love for Mr. Larry shined so brightly. Watching Mr. Larry & Mrs. Almarita together was such a blessing. They balanced each other out so perfectly, God definitely blessed them both. I loved hearing them talk about how they went to the dollar store and split a can of their favorite soup, or how they planned to go to Captain D's for lunch or dinner in advance. Mr. Larry, I know times will be hard for you, but I also know that God will take care of you and will keep his loving arms around you.
