“ Mrs. Arcola was one of the sweetest ladies ever in our church! My children went through kindergarten and daycare at our church (Calvary Baptist) and loved Mrs. Arcola!!! That's been so long ago, but they have never forgotten her and neither have I. I was so sorry to hear of her passing, but I know that being the Christian lady she was, she's with her Lord now. Please know that our thoughts and prayers are with all of the family at this time.

“ To: Robert Lewis, Gayle, Susan & Bob

It was a great sadness to learn that Cola had passed away. Aside from missing her we can rejoice to know she is with our LORD and SAVIOR and we will see her again.

We extend our deepest sympathies to all her family and regret that we were unable to attend her funeral.

“ Mr. And Mrs. Elliott's sweet devotion to each other always touched my heart when I saw them together at Dugans. Mr. Elliott's persistent attempts to feed her would sometimes bring tears to my eyes. He would talk to her in a way that showed that she was the love of his life. Even though she didn't really know me, Mrs. Elliott would usually give me a smile when I would greet her. I will miss seeing this special, godly couple. My prayers will be with Mr. Elliott and his family during the coming difficult days.
