“ My Uncle Bill and I didn't know each other well. Sometimes family is like that, but when I was a boy, I got into a lot of little boy trouble down in Pheba as a kid. It is a time that I remember fondly. Uncle Bill often had the front door open for us kids to come in and out. His home was a rest stop for us to clean our hair after swimming in a lake or getting lost in the woods. My heart breaks for my distant family, for my Dad, his brother. For my cousins, his son and daughter. I love you all dearly, despite my absence. Rest well Uncle Bill.
