“ Carla, I am so sorry to read about your mom’s passing. She was one of my favorite church memories, as well as a family friend. You were blessed with a wonderful Christian mother, and you will be in my prayers as you navigate life without her.
Much love,

“ Carla, we are so sorry that you lost your mother. She was one of our most favorite people in all the world. We had planned to stop by to visit with her a couple of summers ago when we passed thru West Point but Richard wasn’t doing well and she asked us not to come. You were blessed with a wonderful Christian mother. I thoroughly enjoyed my time working with her on the church staff. Sue and I have moved to Jackson, TN to be near our pastor son, Andy, his wife, and four grands. Please give our love to Steve and family. Jerry Meely

If ever a Saint walked with mankind it was Bobbie Jean Stanley Hazelwood. She was the most encouraging Christian woman who overcame hardships that all of us have to endure, some more than others. It was a great gift to know and love her and see her walk daily in Christian faith and witness. So proud to know and love her and be part of her life. Brucie Lyon
