“ Briggs lived a very short life but touched and impacted many lives while here on earth! I will always remember his precious little smile! My heart breaks for all of his family!!! Praying for comfort that can only come from God! God makes no mistakes. He gives and He takes away! I believe Briggs fulfilled his mission God had laid out for him here and God decided it was time for that precious boy to gain his rewards in Heaven! He is healed perfectly! My love and prayers to all of you!!!💔

I am truly sorry for the loss of precious Briggs. He is in the arms of Jesus. I know y'all had a strong faith in God and you will see Briggs again one day. I know your hearts are broken and my heart hurts for y'all. Little Briggs has fought valiantly in his two years. He has taught so many, including myself, that no matter what, be strong and fight hard, and be happy with what you are given. God was with Briggs every day of his life and now Briggs is with God in his heavenly home. Oh what a time Briggs is having. Your sweet angel. Heaven is shining bright. Your family is in my thoughts and prayers over the coming days.

“ I never met Briggs in person. I grew to love him on Facebook from the many posts that Madison shared. I’ve worked with and loved his Grandmother, Regina at the Hospital. So, I understand how she must have loved and cherished Briggs. My heart is breaking for Briggs’s siblings, his parents and grandparents. Run like the wind in Heaven sweet, precious boy. And with a beautiful smile that we saw on earth from you, smile eternally in your Heavenly Home.
