

Charles Magers

October 28, 1935 - February 11, 2025

Mr. Charles E. Magers, 89, passed away on February 11, 2025, at North Mississippi Medical Center in Tupelo. Mr. Charles was born October 28, 1935, in Baldwyn, the son of the late Charlie Raymond and Mildred Conlee Magers. Mr. Charles was a fun and loving man that thoroughly enjoyed pulling a prank on someone. A prank that didn't mean any harm to anyone. He enjoyed each and every day of his life. He enjoyed thoroughly browsing at Wal-Mart and Lowe's. He enjoyed going to work. He was President of Jordan Transfer Company, Inc. of West Point. He often said, "if you enjoy your job, you never work a day in your life." He was always leading by example. He was a member of First Baptist Church in West Point, where he was a member of The Randy Hamblin Men's Sunday School Class. He was a strong christian man and a Gideon. He was a member of the West Point Masonic Lodge #40 F.&A.M. Other than loving and having a personal relationship with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, he loved his family more than anything. He was the "rock" of his family. He enjoyed supporting his grandchildren and their sporting events. He even enjoyed treating his grandchildren to a meal at Hardees. He was a loving husband, father, step-father, grandfather, great-grandfather, great-great grandfather, brother, brother-in-law, and uncle. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his first wife, Peggy Walters Anderson, his second wife, Donna Jordan Magers, step-daughter, Kimberly Haughton, great-grandchild, Maxon Lane Magers, brother, Donny Magers, and son-in-law, Buddy Huffman.

I remember Charles mostly when I was younger. He was always very kind and proud to be one of our first cousins. I didn't get to know his families but to read his obituary, he had to be quite a man. I will always love you, Charles. Sorry I could not be there to meet your wonderful family.
