“ Chip a happy-go type of fellow never seen him upset or mad even when times were not going his way he would always smile and say between him and God we will work it out and always say how blessed he is. He was a family man always talking about how proud and crazy he was about everyone his father how he was always there for him his sons working with him his fiancé especially how lucky he was able to find her his salvation how it will take him from day to day to become what God wants him to be his daughter and grandchildren he couldn't get enough of them . What I'll miss about him the most is his presence always look forward to seeing him he left me feeling better than I did every time before he came and always new what to say but the best part of this is he's in paradise with the lord and looking forward to joining us with him again one day Amen
