“ I am one of her many grandchildren. I have accomplished many task with my grandma. Thanks to her she kept my skills as a nursing aide in check. There were many battles that I had with my grandma that some if which I did win but to be perfectly honest I think she would just give in instead of fighting me about it. I loved every minute I had with her. We shared thoughts that only I was brave enough to talk to her about where others would be afraid to say. She knew I would say. She kept my blood pressure up and I made sure I kept her fiesty. I love u grandma and I will miss u dearly. Stay strong til I c u again.
