

Mrs. Ella Jane White

March 11, 1937 - January 12, 2022

“Your life was a blessing, your memory a treasure.
You are loved beyond words and missed beyond measure.”

Mrs. Ella Jane White, 84, passed away on January 12, 2022 at her residence in West Point, Mississippi. Jane was born on March 11, 1937 in Clay County, Mississippi. Daughter of the late Walter Howard Poss and the late Edna Rainy Poss. She was preceded in death by her husband, Erwin McKinley White, her son, Daniel Lane Roane (Danny) and her siblings, Sandra Griggs, Charles Gary Poss, Jimmy Poss, Charles, Wallace, Ernie and Lucion Poss.

She longed for the day she would see her son again in the resurrection, as well as all of her family. She enjoyed sewing, working in her flowers, reading the bible and she dearly loved her furbabies, Jack and Jill. She always took good care of her family and was a loving mother, leading by example with grace and dignity. And most of all, with kindness.

Jane is survived by her sister, Betty Jo Bowen (Bud) of West Point, Mississippi; two daughters, Cindy Michael of West Point, Mississippi and Charla Henry (Troy) of Southaven, Mississippi; five grandchildren, Brandy Fiebig, Heather Hoffpauer, Lauren Lee, Daniel Roane and Kate Roane Bergstedt; and twelve great grandchildren.

A graveside service will be held at Pleasant Grove Cemetery in Una, Mississippi at a later date, with Jacob Griggs delivering the eulogy. Calvert Funeral Home of West Point is honored to be entrusted with the arrangements.

Cemetery Details

Pleasant Grove Church Cemetery

Una, MS

Previous Events

Graveside Service

FEB 5. 2:00 PM (CT)

Pleasant Grove Church Cemetery
Una, MS

Tribute Wall

CH

“ Charla H. purchased the Pink Tribute Spray for the family of Mrs. Ella Jane White.

Charla H. - February 02, 2022 at 01:32 PM