“ If my memory serves me right Gary was born in Shaw, Ms. He was our third of many gifts we received from God. i am so happy we reconnected in the last several years so I could know him again for what he was; sweet, caring and lovable. He never complain about his physical condition and it never kept him from having that smile. One of the last times I saw him is when we had a reunion of his dad's children. Gary managed to take several pictures by resting his camera between his legs. Now no more suffering and pain. Even thou we are sad it's a glorious day for him with his Grandparents, his mom and dad and his special sister, Sandra Gail.
