“ Scotty, there are no words to express to you and your family of how sorry we are to hear of your loss. We as parents don't feel like we are suppose outlive our children. But God has a plan for each of us and we cannot choose how or when we will leave this world. Our prayer is that God will give you that peace that passes all understanding and you can rest in the fact that you will see him again one day. Please know that you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. Roy and Doris Sagely

“ Scotty and Beverly- prayers for peace and comfort. I know your heart is broken and I am praying that God will give you peace in the days to come. I did not know Hayden, but I have heard such good things about him. Lisa (my sister) visited with him at a Christmas party when their band played for the hospital. she was explaining to him how she knew the family. she said he was such a nice young man. I know there will be lots of lives that he has touched and he will be missed by all. keeping you in prayer- Debbie Gibson

“Don't worry, I can set the ambiance.”-Hayden

When he and I were planning my party he was assuring me that he can sense the atmosphere and set the ambiance for my guests. I love that quote more than ever now.

Then After the party,

"Is it ok if I stick around to digress with a beer before going home?" - Hayden

So enduring. I wish we were still having these easy conversations. I'll miss my new friendship with him. He was pure joy to me.

“ I am so very sorry for your loss, Hayden had such a beautiful soul and spirit. He will be very greatly missed by every single person that came in contact with him, no matter if it was for 5 seconds or 5 years. Jessi, you and those two sweet girls are in my thoughts and prayers along with the rest of the family. I know there are no words that can be said to take away the pain you all are feeling right now but I know that he is going to watch over all of you every single day. He will always be there to protect and love yall like he always has.

Tiffany Barnhill - March 13, 2017 at 01:28 PM

“ Rest in peace, Hayden. To his family, I have smiled through tears today remembering the silly things he said and did when I worked with him. Like calling in saying he couldn't work because the electricity was out and he could not dry his hair. He did have great hair! None of us will ever forget his heavy metal rendition of "Trouble" by Taylor Swift on teller row. He recently texted and told me of his new job and 2nd baby. So much to live for and gone way too soon. I will miss him...

“ Many years ago I had the honor of knowing a very young Hayden. I was a daycare worker at First Baptist Church. That little boy won my heart with his loving personality and adorable smile. I never had children of my own, but I have carried the love of those children that I watched at daycare over all of these years.

I know that Hayden's family will miss him very much. My thoughts and prayers are with you all during this difficult time.

We can have comfort in our hearts that Hayden knew Jesus and he will never feel pain of any kind anymore.

Rest In Peace Sweet Hayden. Miss Debbie loves you.
