“ *To Hunter’s family~
My Daddy had real respect and cared deeply for Hunter. Rufus Blankenship was his name and they worked together for several years at Bryan Foods before my Daddy died in 1991 at Bryan of a massive heart attack.*

Our thoughts and sympathy are with you at this time. May God comfort you all and may your sweetest memories become a treasure to hold in your heart.

I'll always remember you at the Tin Lizzy and Kathy's. Your wonderful way with people. I remember when Christian had a crush on my daughter Missy. The many trips to Mississippi. I love you Hunter like a brother even if you hated my ugly red car. I consider Buddy, you, Diane and Pam as part of my family. I'll cherish your memory and know the Lord Jesus Christ is with you in heaven.

“ It's was on Christmas and Priscilla and myself and got a pair of dancing boobs for Hunter. When he opened it around the Coffee drinkers it was hilarious. To much fun and of course Hunter blushed. Then gave them back a few weeks làter. He was a great customer and friend for years. No more sorrow, no more pain. He will be missed. J. Trulove
