

Mr. James R. Chunn

January 22, 1945 - August 3, 2018

Mr. James Ronald Chunn, 73, looked peacefully upon the face of Jesus and entered into his eternal home on August 3, 2018, at his home near Columbus surrounded by his loving family. He never once feared death. Mr. James was born January 22, 1945, in Bastrop, LA, the son of the late James "Jim" Henry and Zona Pearl Humphries Chunn. Mr. James worked for the International Paper Company in Bastrop, LA, for over 20 years before transferring to Weyerhaeuser in Columbus in 1982 to begin the start-up of the plant. He retired from Weyerhaeuser where he worked in the Finishing and Shipping department. Mr. James was known to be hard worker. He was a loyal and faithful member of Faith Baptist Church in West Point, where he sang in the choir and was instrumental in organizing a Gospel singing every quarter at the church. He was a talented and accomplished harmonica player that enjoyed all music and enjoyed singing. Mr. James was an avid outdoorsman that enjoyed deer and rabbit hunting, fishing, and archery. He was a member of the Big Horn Hunting Club. He also excelled in football, baseball, and track.. He was a huge "L.S.U." fan and enjoyed all sports. He was very soft spoken, but a man that meant what he said and said what he meant. He married Anne Sloat Chunn on March 7, 1964, in Bastrop, LA, and they were married for 54 years. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by a Brother: John Kenneth Chunn. "Go Rest High on the Mountain Daddy, for your work on Earth is done." Go to Heaven a shouting, Husband, look for the Father and His Son. We will see you soon, Papaw. Until we meet again.....

Funeral services will be Tuesday, August 7, 2018, at 2:00 P.M. at Faith Baptist Church in West Point with Reverend Ben Yarber officiating and assisted by Reverend John Sevier and Reverend Jeff Morgan. Burial will follow in Memorial Garden Cemetery in Columbus. Calvert Funeral Home of West Point is honored to be entrusted with the arrangements.

“ *Dear Family,
What an awesome testimony and rejoicing to have the assurance that your loved one has gone home. The vacancy is filled with wonderful good memories until the family is reunited. May our sweet Jesus wrap you in His love through the Holy Spirit and His peace fill you as only He can.*

Thank you Patsy! I know you know all too well the pain I am feeling, because we both lost our daddy's to Glioblastoma Multiforme stage IV brain cancer. This is a nasty, nasty, disease and attacks your loved one so quickly. I pray that one day they will find a cure. I love you.

Yes, Sweet Daughter I pray too that one day they find a cure for Glioblastoma. Having Loss my Soulmate of 54+ years Is so difficult and I feel like a piece of my heart has been cut out. But I know where he resides now and we will see each other again. He is well now praising the LORD more than ever before! Singing at the top of his voice as he so loves to. But for now my LORD has something else for me to do before HE takes me home. Then I will look into the eyes of my JESUS and say "I LOVE YOU LORD with ALL my Heart & THANK YOU!!!" as my work on this earth will be done like your Daddy's was. "Praise HIS Name forever & Forever. Amen I don't know fully if we recognize other Christians to be our earthly mates or not but I hope so. Sure would like to see James Ronald as I'll always have a huge void in my heart until. This is a ? In my mind. In the flesh I hope so. But don't know if we recognize our Soulmates as such but I would like to keep believing so. I miss my Wonderful Husband so much & long to have a sweet conversation with him. I can't be selfish that he is in the presence of the LORD! I really rejoice for his celebration! I miss you my Sweetheart!!
