“ My husband, Larry, and I attended Church services in West Point with Allan and Janet years ago. We had lost touch, but was able to reconnect somewhat on Facebook. We never spent a lot of time together while living in same area, but I remember one time being invited to go to the Mexican Kitchen with them when Dalton was a little boy. That was Janet's favorite Mexican restaraunt at the time. We had a good time that evening. Janet was a sweet young woman, and I was so sorry to hear of her death. She was way too young. The family will be in my prayers.

“ I will miss your daily emails and calling you sunshine. ...Janet, you will always be my SUNSHINE, and I will keep your spirit with me always...I love you and I miss you deeply. I am jealous because you got to heaven before me and left me here to deal with the toll companies by myself! !!! I love you girl..

“ I have known Janet for 9 years. From the beginning I knew she was going to be a special friend. She was so much like me it was funny. We liked the same colors in clothes which drove our husbands crazy because they were black and white. And we both had migraines which we would rather have not shared. Janet was one of the most caring, sweet, compassionate, supportive women I know. She was always there when I needed to talk. I don't know how many times we met somewhere to eat and would be there for 2 or 3 hours just talking. I am going to miss her so much. I still can't believe she's really gone. Janet, you will be in my heart forever. I love you. Heaven has gained an angel.

“ I have so many fond memories of my neighbors The Pate's from Siloam MS. When 9 months pregnant and mowing grass in low gear it was not unusual to glance over my shoulder and seeing Alan mowing along side of me. After coming home from the hospital with newborn, there was Janet bring over a hot meal for an entire week. The last time i chatted with Janet was June, traveling back from my daughters wedding and riding thru TN. I jokingly asked what was for dinner. How i wished i had stopped by!!! My prayers and thought are with you all. Heaven truly gained a one of a kind angel.

“ It is not often that a person comes into my life and makes a huge impression on it. Janet was just such a person. She had a heart big enough to include as many people as God would bring into it, and a then love them for who they were. Although my heart is broken right now, I know that my life is sweeter for having had dear Janet in it. I haven't stopped praying for her family and friends since I heard the impossible news. I'm so sorry for this great loss, Allen, Macy, Dalton and Emily.
