

Mrs. Jo Peeples

August 29, 1935 - November 21, 2024

Mrs. Jo Peeples, 89, passed away on November 21, 2024, at her home in West Point. Mrs. Jo was born August 29, 1935, in McAdams, MS, the daughter of the late Emmett and Thelma Opal Hodges Adcock. After the untimely death of Mr. Emmett, Mrs. Thelma married Mr. Bill Ramage and Mrs. Jo considered Mr. Bill as the gentleman that raised her from an early age. Mrs. Jo married Tom Burl Peeples on January 19, 1980, and he passed away on July 15, 1995. For many years Mrs. Jo was a member of Calvary Baptist Church in West Point where she enjoyed singing in the choir. In her later years, she joined and enjoyed going to Faith Baptist Church. Mrs. Jo enjoyed sharing her faith with others, and preparing for and taking mission trips. She retired from Babcock and Wilcox where she worked for a number of years as a bender's assistant. She enjoyed flower gardening, cooking, baking, and bird watching. Mrs. Jo was not one to sit idle. After retirement from Babcock and Wilcox, and because of her love of flowers, Mrs. Jo went to work with Flowers by Shirley. Mrs. Jo had such a love for others, that she could often be counted on to sit with and care for the elderly, a ministry that she was passionate about. In addition to her parents and step-father, Mrs. Jo was preceded in death by her husband, Mr. Tom Burl Peeples; her sister, Mrs. Emmie Fulgham; and her niece, Mrs. Sheila Freeman Love.
