“ I taught Joey when he was in junior high school. I saw him only a few times after he graduated from high school, but I remember that he was still an extremely kind, humble, and wonderful person. May the family be comforted during this time of sadness in knowing that when God returns, you will be reunited to spend eternity with him!

“ I graduated from high school with Elizabeth Ann. She was and is such a lovely person, and she loves her children. Losing one is so hard; I lost a daughter when she was 20.
My love goes out to Elizabeth and her family.
