“ Mr Kenneth has been a friend to my family since before I was born. He was always doing anything he could to help us when we needed help. After church on Sunday's we ALL (that includes any one we knew in the block)would load up and go swimming in he cow pond behind his house. I have fond memories of that. And sometimes we got watermelon on the way out. There are more stories but I don't have enough time for that. He will be greatly missed. Prayers for you all for peace in your heart. GOD IS GOOD AND HE WILL TAKE CARE OF YOU ALL. love all of you always
