“ I remember getting ready for 5th grade and people telling me to get ready because Mrs. Hill was tough. I was nervous. After one week in her class I absolutely loved her! She didn't put up with foolishness but she was fun and she was an excellent teacher. I always felt as though she truly cared about me. I was so happy to have found her on Facebook and to have been able to message her and keep up with her. I will always remember her as a wonderful and caring person. Much love and condolences to her family.❤️
