“ In the early 1990s, Mrs. Alma was a dear friend to my Great-aunt Bonnie in West Point, MS. At Aunt Bonnie's memorial, my sister and I were so very sad. Mrs. Alma made little men from beads, and she told us, "Come out to my car, I want to give you both a man." Which made us both smile. She was a kind, thoughtful lady.

“ Robin, I was so sorry to read about your mother. I will be out-of-town for the funeral or I sure would be there. I hope the rest of your family is doing well and will miss not getting to see you. You will be in my prayers and hopefully we will have another opportunity to see each other only for a better occasion. Love to you and all your family, Jeannie Alford Johnson.
