“ I am so sorry about Bobbie Jean Jones Arney. She lived next door to us at Silver Ridge Community. Mom Ader Dukes and Mrs Lillie were friends. We girls played together, Walked to each others house. Bobbie Jean was more my Sister Margaret Nell age than me . but she was always nice to me and Polly. I know she loved and will be missed. May God be with her family. Much love to all. “ Tami and Vernon I am sorry for the loss of your mother and mother in-law. As you know we had kept a close friendship through the years. I just wish we could have been there. The 16 to 18 hour drive I felt was to much for Thomas with his health condition. God will bless Bobbie, she was a God loving person and will have no more suffering. With our deepest heart felt sympathy. Love you Thomas and Jane
