“ Judy, Kay, and families- So sorry to hear about Miss Claire. I have many fond memories of growing up next door to this beautiful lady. I visited with her when I was in WP last June and she was amazing. She was always so good to my Mother and my Aunt Sallie. May your hearts be filled with wonderful memories as you celebrate a life well lived. Ron Rounsaville-Gatlinburg, TN

“ 100 years! As you received the blessing of her presence for these many years, we know the memories will continue to bless your lives. Kay, we know, without ever having known her, that she has been a blessing untold for literally thousands of people because she raised you and sent you out to bless others. We're so grateful.
