“ My father, John Clifton Gable, passed away on my birthday on April 24. He fought a great fight for four years. I have often been with him to the hospital for this that or the other with both my parents. My father was fond of her and mentioned her often. I remember her as well. From all of the Gable family I offer our condolences.

“ Michael, Stephen, and Chris, I am so sorry for your loss. My family and I would like to send our condolences. I still remember Mrs. Dorothy for her funny and positive personality. She raised three boys into men to have class, integrity, and strong character which couldn't have been easy. You will be in my thoughts.

“ Hey Steve & Family. It is hard for me to believe that your Mom is gone. Steve I knew your mom from working @ hospital, known her since she started there. She was a great lady, you were fortunate to have had her as long as you did. She was a hard worker. Now she is at rest. May you find comfort in that. Steve, we are out of town, but we wanted you to know we care. Gene sends his love. Gene & Rachel Nace

“ Chris, Steve and Mike: It is with deep sadness that we say goodbye to your mom. The fond memories will live with us forever-football games; learning about plants; teaching me how to alter clothes; her famous biscuits and all the Bryan conventions. We loved she and your dad very much. So sorry we could not say goodbye in person, but know we will keep you all in our prayers. Alice & Sonny Pate

“ Eugene and Stanley Jones and Dorothy's Boys I lived next door and grew up together, caught the school bus, and graduated from high school with Dorothy in 1971 from luka High School. Many fond memories of us all playing together as kids. Dorothy was such a sweet nice person. My heart is saddened and you are in my prayers. Eugene and Stanley I just don't know how to tell you how sorry I am. God Bless You, David Murrah

“ Look for Me - Michael, Chris, and Stephen Now that I am gone; remember me with smiles and laughter.
When you need me, put your arms around a friend or a brother;
No words need to be spoken, just feel my embrace.
For all will understand, it's missing me that you face. I am yours, and you will always be mine.
I am your enduring patience and your strength combine.
I live on in your heart as well as your mind.
I am the stories and memories I have left behind. Remember, I will always be with you.
You will find me in people we both knew;
The comforter, the encourager, the one that appreciates all, You know the ones, my sons. I know you will recall. I didn't leave you alone, just take a look around.
I left you with something much more than words or sound.
See the many blessings and all I admired;
For I raised 3 wonderful sons, each stronger and wiser. Don't you dare sacrifice your life with sadness;
For I am watching each of you, and will notice the madness.
Hold your head up high and make me proud men.
Show me the way as best as you can. Embrace the living with grace and all that I love.
Hear me in a whisper or see me on the wings of a dove. Look for me; I am there on the shoulder of a friend.
Look for me son, in your heart, in a shadow, or in someone I send. I am there;
We will make this journey together.
I am there, look for me;
For I will be with you forever. Poem by: Melissa Thompson
In loving memory of those left behind.

“ Michael, Chris, and Stephen,
I am so sorry to hear of your precious Mom's death. She was such a dear woman and loved you boys with all her heart. I pray that you will find comfort knowing that her family was always foremost in her heart. I will not be able to come to the visitation tonight as I have a previous commitment, but please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. Debbie Hinshaw
