“ Denise, you and your daughters. Have my heartfelt sympathy. I really liked your mom. We worked at the polling place together for several years and I also helped her with some house work years back.

“ I was trying to arrange to be at the service tomorrow, but does not look like I will be there. I am so sorry, Dinese for your loss. I do not have words to say but do know that only God can help you through this time. I still miss my parents and remember all the times growing up very fondly.
