“ I remember the times we stopped by while we were in West Point working. I also remember the times I stopped by to visit a bit. Your Mom was such a wonderful lady. May God bless her and let you know she is in a better place. Maxine

“ Billy, I saw your mom's obituary in the Tupelo paper, and I just want you to know I am remembering you and your family in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. I do understand and care... I know you and your sisters must have many sweet, precious memories. Remember them; talk about them; and, above all, ask God to give you the strength to get through this. He surely will.
