“ I would like to thank everyone for thier kind comments and thoughts. We really appreciate all that Calvert Funeral Home did for us in our time of loss, Rev. Dale did a great service. We have great memories of Mom and Dad and West Point. The great people that worked at Big Star through the years are still like family. Thanks you to all who came to the funeral home. “ I am so sorry for your loss. Ms Dot took care of me for the 5 years I lived and worked in West Point. She was funny, kind, giving, and so full of life. I have a wonderful photo of her from my wedding which means the world to me. One of my best memories is of her fried chicken and fresh corn meals she would cook for me. Was she ever a wonderful Southern cook.
Ms Dot made the world a better place.
