“ I am sorry for your loss of Nellie Lou. I knew her mostly through my wonderful grandmother, Velma Vail. But, I remember Nellie Lou as a kind, caring and sweet lady. May God rest her soul and grant you peace and comfort.

“ Aunt Nellie Lou opened her home and her heart to all who knew her, whether related to her or just a friend. We will all miss her beautiful smile and loving embrace. Heaven is richer to have her home and in the arms of her Savior.

“ "When the Lord calls our loved ones home, he leaves a gift of memories in exchange"..
Both Gene and I share the feelings of sadness in the loss of our Aunt Nellie. We have so many fond memories of the times we were able to spend with her. Her smile, her wit, her keen sense of humor will all be greatly missed and most of all, her kind and living heart. Gene and Sally (Avery) Weiser, Lakewood, Colorado
