“ I want to express my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one and share the hope promised in the Bible.
God has set a day in which he purposes to judge the inhabited earth in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed, and he has furnished a guarantee to all men in that he has resurrected him from the dead. (Acts 17:31)
If your heart yearns to see a loved one again, study the Bible to make this resurrection hope your very own.

“ sorry to hear about Ms. Patricia. That's how I knew her. She was my PreK teacher. I'm 36 now, so that was a 'few' years ago. =) One of my first and most favorite teachers. I was very shy growing up and she was always so kind and welcoming and made me feel comfortable. I remember making Indian clothes out of construction paper and my Indian name I think was Rainbow. Will be praying for the family <3 -Jennifer (Peeples) Forrester

“ I got to know Trisha through our work together on the Art's Council. She was such a creative artist, and her sense of fun and ease just invited you to care about her.

We relied on her for her innovative designs of flyers, brochures and backdrops for plays.

She and Skeeter were just a delight to be with and I always enjoyed hearing about their adventures. She adored her two daughters and was a terrific grandmother. I am so glad I got to know her.

Our town lost a bright light when her candle lost its glow. She will be missed. My heart goes out to her family.
