Peggy graduated from Houston High School in 1960. She had fond memories of her high school years and could name many members of her class years after graduating.

A few years after high school, Peggy met her future husband, Grady Davis and they were married on June 9, 1961. They made Clay County and West Point their home and together they shared 64 loving years.

In 1973, she earned a Degree in Education from Mississippi State University. Being a professional educator, she had a passion for teaching and cared lovingly for all of her students, no matter where they were on the grade scale.

Strong in her faith, Peggy was a devout Christian. She loved living only a stone's throw from First Baptist Church in West Point where she was an active member and taught Bible Study for many years.

Peggy's favorite delights of life were her family, Bible Study, quilting, teaching, being with friends, and spending time at the family farm retreat - Cloud 9. She enjoyed traveling and took many trips across the United States including her beloved Tennessee mountains. She also loved visiting foreign countries including Ireland, Italy, Greece, and the United Kingdom.

Peggy was blessed by the unwavering support of all of her friends at Waverly Care Home and her hospice team. She was especially grateful to all of her friends and family who routinely came by for visits, laughs, and just reminiscing.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by a son, Jeff Davis, one sister, Martha Williams, and two brothers, John and Bert Brand.

“ I'm sorry for your loss, Grady. Hugs and prayers for you and your family.

One of my favorite memories of Peggy is when daddy moved us from Montpelier to Brand Town, which I cried about for days, and Peggy would come down and take us riding to pick green plums. She was old enough to have her drivers' license, or maybe not, but I thought it was so cool to go riding with her. We would ride the backroads of Brand Town and McCondy. Will never forget those fun times.

“ When I moved next door to Mrs. Peggy and Mr. Grady they were very nice and welcoming to the neighborhood. They have always been gracious and diligent in their love for God, and a pinnacle of perfection in what neighbors are suppose to be, She is today spending time with her son and my dear friend, Jeff, in heaven. I hope to see them again. Please stop and say a prayer for her cross over.
