“ I was born Jan. 8, 1960 and Bobby was born five days later. Some of my first memories of Bobby were as a toddler at First Baptist Church. I spent many a day with him on the railroad tracks behind his house. He had a guinea hen and used to tell me he would give me $10 if I could catch it. I never got that 10 bucks and I never caught that guinea! He fixed and painted my green Mustang after I bent it up one night.
Bobby is gone, but the memories will remain with me forever.
