“ Sandra Kay was my first best friend. Yes, Sandra Kay, the name never got shortened. So long together folks think we favor and forever ask if we are sisters. The best of friendships/sisterhoods spanning 58 years. She was the first face I saw when I stepped on the School bus after moving to West Point in 2nd grade, and I was one of the last faces she saw before leaving this life. We lived at each others homes (even when Strang wished I would go home or threatened to claim me on his taxes). We faced marriage, divorce, childbirth, child rearing, death of pets, parents, and siblings together. We worked several jobs together. We kept nothing secret (because we couldn't if we tried). Corey was her other kid and Heather and Holly were mine. We prayed each other thru wrecks, sepsis, heart attacks, diabetes, you name it we suffered it. Tomorrow looks bleak, how do you function without your right hand????

I'm gonna miss you forever and love you til the end my adopted sister!! I'm so glad we got to grill for your birthday... just another day of sweet memories...

“ Sandra was my neighbor and my friend. One of the most precious and sweetest ladies I have ever met in my life. Always smiling. No matter how bad she felt or how her day was going, she still smiled. I am in shock and I will miss her dearly every day. I will miss Charlie barking at me when I would come out of my apt. He was protecting his mama Sandra. She loved her pets. It was a pleasure knowing her. God welcomed her with open arms. (Pam Beaty, next door neighbor)
