March 29, 1972 - September 6, 2020

West Point, MS - Scott Lamar Fulgham, 48, passed away on September 6, 2020 at Baptist Memorial Hospital in Columbus, MS. He was born March 29, 1972 in Columbus to Margaret Cornell and John Lamar Fulgham. He worked as an Upholsterer for Scarborough Upholstery in Starkville for 3 years and was a member of Methodist Church. Scott loved his son and family. He enjoyed spending time with his son Tyler. He liked to go hunting, taking long rides on his four wheeler on the farm and going rock climbing and mud riding in his 4x4. Scott was also a spelunking enthusiast. Cave exploring was one of his favorite pastimes. You might say Scott was an outdoorsman.

A private family graveside service will be Wednesday, September 9, 2020, with Pete Bowen officiating. Calvert Funeral Home of West Point is honored to be entrusted with the arrangements.

Survivors include his son, Tyler Fulgham of Birmingham, AL, his parents John Lamar and Margaret Cornell Fulgham of Columbus, his sisters, Misi Moreland (Tim) of Brandon, Vicki Sevier (Damon) of West Point.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to West Point/Clay County Animal Shelter, 5122 Old Tibbee Road, West Point, MS 39773.

“ What a shock to hear of Scott's passing, words can't express my deepest sympathies. Scott and I have known each other and attended school together for many years. His mom was my 6th grade teacher and I adore her and can't imagine the pain she feels. My prayers for peace for Scott's family and my love sent to them. May Scott Rest In Peace ☐
