“ Valinda and Gid were our neighbors for four years. They took us under their wing - we were young, away from home with no family. We have so many great memories of them both. Valinda was the kindest person. A pure and gentle soul. She loved her husband and she loved my child like she were one of her own grandchildren. She spoiled her and cared for her for two years until we moved. ❤️ Purple hull peas, the bottom and golden eagle syrup are things that come to mind when I think of ‘GidGid’ and ‘Linda’s’ house as my child would say. ❤️
