“ Andrew was just a little boy around 3 years old, when I first met him. He was one of the children in my afternoon group at First Baptist Daycare.

He won my heart with his loving heart and big smile.

I often wished that he was my little boy when he would crawl up on my lap and tell me he loved me. I never had any children of my own, but felt such a sweet bond with Andrew.

I got to talk to him on the phone just before this past Thanksgiving and had exchanged some text messages.

I am so proud of the man that he had become. He loved his family, friends, country and God. He was a good and honorable man. Love

Always,

Ms. Debbie
