

Mr. William Henry "Billy" Harris Jr.

May 27, 1951 - March 1, 2022

William Henry (Billy) Harris, Jr., 70, of West Point, passed away on March 1, 2022, at North Mississippi Medical Center in Tupelo.

A lifelong resident of the Golden Triangle area, Billy was born May 27, 1951, to the late William Henry Harris and Wanda West Harris of West Point. He attended West Point High School and Mississippi State University, graduating with a bachelor's degree in journalism.

Billy is survived by his beloved wife of 52 years, Emily Smith Harris. Through thick and thin, illness and health, they traveled life's journey with God's guidance and Billy's dry humor.

He is survived by a son, William Henry (Hank) Harris, III, and daughter-in-law, Amy Rhodes Harris; grandsons William Henry Harris, IV, and Brennan Lee Harris; granddaughter, Jessica Lee Henley; and three great-grandsons, Makel, Jashaun and Ethan Henley.

He is also survived by two sisters, Marie Harris Lambeth of Gulfport and Carol Harris (Robert) Lummus of West Point, and a brother, Edgar Harris of West Point.

A third-generation newsman, Billy followed his family's footsteps into the business, ultimately serving as publisher of the (West Point) Daily Times

Leader and the Starkville Daily News.

Billy loved God and he loved music. He was a co-founder and music director of Riverside Chapel Baptist Church, where he truly enjoyed using his musical talent to serve and praise the Lord.

We will miss Billy's voice and his jokes, his shy grin and his wise advice. And we will be listening for a new baritone in God's heavenly choir.

Visitation will be on Saturday, April 9, 2022 at 10:00 A.M. at Riverside Chapel Baptist Church in West Point. A Memorial Service will follow at 11:00 A.M. Calvert Funeral Home in West Point is assisting the family with arrangements.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Riverside Chapel Baptist Church, P.O. Box 526, West Point, MS 39773.
