“ I am her half brother Bob. I just ran across this today 4-17-25. I never really knew her as I was not part of the family but talked with her a few times years ago. So sad we never had a real relationship. R.I.P.

“ I love and miss you mama. Someday I will see you again. Give you a huge hug and kiss.

Jay, I remember your mom from her days in our school at Houston. She was very sweet and pretty. She moved, during or after the seventh grade, to West Point. She had to tell me that I would not be getting my box of girl scout cookies because one of her brothers ate them before she could deliver. Always a smile on her face.
